

The Little Miami
River Partnership
Presents:

4th Annual Water Quality Symposium
PROTECTING RIPARIAN ZONES

Wilmington College, Wilmington, Ohio
Kelly Center (McCoy Room)

August 25th

$25.00 (includes lunch, beverages and materials)

4 Professional Development Hours
3.75 Contact Hours

Agenda

8:00 am - 8:30 am.	Registration and Introductions
8:30 am - 9:15 am.	Evaluating Riparian Health with QHEI — Ed Rankin, Senior Research Scientist, Midwest Biodiversity Institute
9:15 am - 10:00 am.	Correlating Riparian Zones to River Health — Dr. Bernie Daniels, Senior Environmental Scientist, USEPA
10:00 am - 10:15 am.	Break
10:15 am - 11:00 am.	Voluntary Tools to Protect Riparian Corridors — Eric Partee, Executive Director, Little Miami, Incorporated
11:00 am - 11:45 am.	Government Tools to Protect Riparian Corridors — Kyle Dreyfus-Wells, Chagrin River Partners
11:45 am - 12:30 pm.	Lunch
12:30 pm - 1:15 pm.	Innovative Funding Strategies to Protect Riparian Corridors — Steve Grossman, Executive Director, Ohio Water Development Authority
1:15 pm - 4:30 pm.	Tour: Lytle Creek Riparian Protection — Lytle Creek League of Conservators and Clinton County Open Lands, Incorporated.

For Registration and Directions call: 513.695.1187